Our Vision for St Andrew's

Seeking God's will through prayer and worship, outreach, and nurturing community

Letter from our Chaplain

Dear Family and friends of St. Andrew's Church,

Lent is upon us and we face it with a mixture of feelings from a sense of gloom and foreboding to outright denial and apathy. But have we ever stopped to consider lent as an opportunity for growth and renewal and new found happiness? I found the following article and ask that you read it as I think the meaning and purpose of the season is explained well and then let us consider what this season may mean to us spiritually.

Lent (Latin: Quadragesima: (Fortieth)) is a solemn religious observance in the liturgical calendar that begins on Ash Wednesday and ends approximately six weeks later, before Easter Sunday. The purpose of Lent is the preparation of the believer through prayer, doing penance, repentance of sins, almsgiving, atonement, and self-denial. This event is observed in the Anglican, Eastern Orthodox, Lutheran, Methodist, and Roman Catholic Churches.<sup>[1][2]</sup>

<sup>[3]</sup> Some Anabaptist and evangelical churches also observe the Lenten season.<sup>[4][5]</sup> Its institutional purpose is heightened in the annual commemoration of Holy Week, marking the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus, which recalls the tradition and events of the New Testament beginning on Friday of Sorrows, further climaxing on Jesus' crucifixion on Good Friday, which ultimately culminates in the joyful celebration on Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

In Lent, many Christians commit to fasting or giving up certain types of luxuries as a form of penance. Many Christians also add a Lenten spiritual discipline, such as reading a daily devotional or praying through a Lenten calendar, to draw themselves near to God.<sup>[6][7]</sup> The Stations of the Cross, a devotional commemoration of Christ's carrying the Cross and of his execution, are often observed. Many Roman Catholic and some Protestant churches remove flowers from their altars, while crucifixes, religious statues, and other elaborate religious symbols are often veiled in violet fabrics in solemn observance of the event. Throughout Christendom, some adherents mark the season with the traditional abstention from the consumption of meat, most notably among Roman Catholics.<sup>[8]</sup>

Lent is traditionally described as lasting for forty days, in commemoration of the forty days Jesus spent fasting in the desert, according to the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke, before beginning his public ministry, after which he endured temptation by Satan.<sup>[9][10]</sup>

The lenten program this year will take a slightly different shape. Starting with Ash Wednesday we will begin with the Service of the Imposition of Ashes and each Wednesday will look at a program entitled "The best Lent ever are you sabotaging your Happiness? It will be based on the book by Mathew Kelly "Resisting Happiness" A true story about why we sabotage ourselves, feel overwhelmed, set aside our dreams and lack the courage to simply be ourselves...&how to start choosing happiness again! You may go online and download the program at Dynamic Catholic and go to the series "Best Lent Ever". Starting with Ash Wednesday you will receive a daily devotional video. You may also purchase the book at this site for free with a charge for shipping and handling. Each Wednesday we will meet for a simple eucharist at the Church with discussion based on the videos we received that week. Keep watch in the Round Robin as to time of the service. I want to put it out to see which time would suite most people's needs.

A couple of other things, the Imposition of Ashes will be observed on the First Sunday of Lent as well as Ash Wednesday and we will refrain from decorating the church with flowers during the Season as is customary in keeping with the nature of Lent. You may make a donation to the Flower Fund and donate flowers for Easter as a thanksgiving of memorial.

All the Best in Christ, for a blessed and prosperous Lenten tide as we go forward to greet our Risen Lord on Easter Morning.

David Bruce
Chaplain

THE IMPOSITION OF ASHES and Ash Wednesday Liturgy will be observed again on the first Sunday of Lent. We will refrain from putting flowers on the Altar during this time in anticipation of Easter when you may donate to the flower fund in thanksgiving or as a memorial to a loved one.

Let us pray that this Lent will be a time of reknewal and refreshment of ourselves body and soul as we approach our risen Lord with Joy.

Yours in Christ,
David

DO YOU WANT TO FAST THIS LENT?

In the words of Pope Francis

- Fast from hurting words and say kind words.
- Fast from sadness and be filled with gratitude.
- Fast from anger and be filled with patience.
- Fast from pessimism and be filled with hope.
- Fast from worries and have trust in God.
- Fast from complaints and contemplate simplicity.
- Fast from pressures and be prayerful.
- Fast from bitterness and fill your hearts with joy.
- Fast from selfishness and be compassionate to others.
- Fast from grudges and be reconciled.
- Fast from words and be silent so you can listen.

Visitors from Oslo

The Venerable Brian Russell and his wife Pam visited us on 11th December for our Peace and Justice Sunday celebration. They were here on an exchange with David. It is always nice to meet clergy from the other Scandinavian countries, as indeed it was on this occasion.

CAROLS 2016 and an appeal for more choir members

It feels strange to report on our carol services on St Valentine's Day, when I heard the first great tit (talgoxe) singing in one of the bushes lining the path to the swimming baths. However, it is important to acknowledge our great debt to the lovers of Christmas carols who came along to five practices and two services to support the few remaining members of our church choir.

Just how many of the congregation actually attended the two Festivals of Nine Lessons and Carols last December I wonder? They are something that is expected by the Swedish population surrounding us – they usually fill our church to the brim, and recently it has been necessary to turn some away because of the fire safety regulations. Thirty years ago or more maybe people had to sit round the altar as we had so many, while twenty or more choristers rather dangerously filled the choir loft.

Though not quite so full as usual the carol services went splendidly thanks to our friends from other choirs and the offer of help with playing the organ from Bo Kenneth Bäck. We had eventually mastered a new carol from the Middle Ages and, of course, relied on help from the congregation with old favourites. Some old choirmembers there said they really enjoyed themselves and one photographed our lovely altar and the Christmas trees set up by Ron Jones. Thank you to all who read the lessons so well.

The traditional appeal was made and money was collected for Syrian refugee families in the Lebanon. Together with the collection made at the English School Carol Service, we were able to raise 7088 kr.

Finally, I suppose I should mention Carols round the Crib on the Friday between the main carol services. David welcomed the children and they looked at our lovely crib and the traditional figures it contains. I started with the song “Little Donkey”, and then the families present chose the other carols. Three or four choir members supported us and coffee and biscuits were available.

Unfortunately, we no longer hold a carol service in Uddevalla – partly due to the demise of our very good friend up there Ronald Trimming. Nor was there any participation in the carol service at Hakarp, near Jönköping. Maybe we should reach out to the people concerned in the coming year.

THE CHOIR

Several years ago we lost a lovely row of sopranos due to important life changes like marriage, the need for education or a living, and sadly one demise. Last year we lost several old-timers who claimed to have lost their voices. Thank you for sticking to us for so long!!

The good news is that our numbers have recently risen to NINE, including myself. As the range of voices is rather skew, though, we are appealing for more sopranos and especially altos!!!

We prepare the hymns for every Sunday and special songs or anthems for festivals. And I think members would agree that it is FUN!!!

ST. ANDREW'S GREAT ANNUAL LOTTERY 2017

It should not come as a surprise that we need to continue with both the lottery and bazaar to raise money for the everyday running of St. Andrew's. At the last meeting of the Church Committee, I informed the members that I could no longer be held responsible for running the lottery in any way. I have been involved with it since its start in 1991 and have been trying to hand over this task for the past three years at least. Now it is high time to collect prizes if the tickets are to be ready for sale by Easter at the latest. This is the last possible date since two months are required for selling the tickets, and this needs to be completed before the holiday season.

I am able to inform you all that Tomas Fredén on the CC has heroically offered to take over the organization of the lottery. But that does not mean that everyone else can sit back and let him get on with it!! He is a very busy person. He needs a team of helpers. First of all, please look at the list of donors at the back of this magazine. We could do with some new and interesting shops, restaurants and hotels. At one time we picked up a lot of books in the February sales. Someone might like to donate a picture or tablecloth. What sort of thing would YOU like to win?

Once we have enough prizes, an official list has to be drawn up, approved and the tickets printed. Last year Therese Svanberg very kindly drew up the list and printed the tickets at her own office. There is a computer program designed by Stig Thylander for producing the tickets. Once the packs of 25 tickets are ready, another person could be in charge of finding sellers and keeping a record of sales and payments. The official manager of the lottery is our treasurer Steven Wray. He deals with the contacts with the "lotteri kontrollant" and reports on the results.

If you accept a packet of 25 tickets, do not be afraid to approach your family, friends, classmates or strangers. Swedish people are happy to have a go – especially when they see what lovely prizes we have! Maybe a family member can help you. My daughter Anne sells one pack amongst her colleagues at Mölndal's hospital. I usually give my godson Martin 10 tickets every year, and so far he has won a guitar, a lovely glass bowl and a book! I like giving tickets as birthday presents as well.

DEAR MEMBERS OF OUR CONGREGATION
OVER TO YOU!!!

Gillian Thylander

Remember your Spirit

Life is an adventure and a journey into the unknown. I have been on my journey for 80 years. My path has taken many a turn, but through the grace of God I have enjoyed life's many blessings on the way.

I was born in South Africa, and I never dreamt of one day visiting Sweden. 51 years ago my friend and I were chosen to work as au pairs for a diplomatic family. We were able to travel to so many exciting places and we have seen and done so many wonderful things.

I would like to pay a tribute to my mother, and thank her for sending me off with her blessings and these wise words: Give your children roots, but also wings so that they can experience life. Her generosity made it possible for her, many years later, to visit me and experience so much herself.

One of my many joys, besides my work as a nurse, has been our Church. We have had so many people, mainly contract workers, from all over the world during the years. We got to know many wonderful friends, and some we still have contact with. I always felt so sad having to say goodbye when they left. I realized afterwards that we are all on our individual journeys. So now I embrace the people I meet in a completely different way, and am thankful that they have touched my life.

These last few years the church has been blessed with many young families, with lots of children. These have been mainly from Africa and India. They have filled the air with lots of laughter and joy.

Thank you all

Ann Gustafsson

The St Andrew's Ladies Guild

THE ST ANDREW'S LADIES' GUILD IN GOTHENBURG

The original "Ladies' Guild" was founded in the early 1930's by Dr. Frew, who was at that time Chaplain of St Andrew's Church in Gothenburg. We paid a small subscription and met regularly. In the early 1940's we were approached by Mrs Lithander, an English lady married to a Swede, and living in Gothenburg. She suggested that we start a branch of the British Red Cross and that we should all join together and work for war charities. Many garments were both sewn and knitted.

The first meeting of the reformed St Andrew's Ladies' Guild, Gothenburg was held on Tuesday October 12th, 1943, in the Anglo-Swedish Society's rooms, Arkivgatan. The Guild worked actively in helping with the repatriation of British soldiers who had been prisoners of war - providing both hospitality and clothing.

Towards the end of 1944 there was an exchange of prisoners of war on a very large scale. Three ships were then in action "Arun-delCastle", "Drottningholm" and "Gripsholm".

During the afternoon before the PoWs left, we were able to meet many of them, where they were quartered in a school in Majorna. We were all given tea and at a sing-song the chief favourites were "Take me back to dear old Blighty" and "Roll out the barrel". The day before they left we were able to go aboard and wish them Good speed. It was a happy occasion in many ways - and a tragic one too. Those of us who went below deck and spoke with those who were too ill to be up could never forget the tragedies of broken lives.

Many of them were too ill to speak much, but were grateful for a friendly word and a press of the hand. Many were the photographs we were shown, worn and fingered, of their loved ones - wives, children and parents. It brought home to us very clearly the uselessness of war.

Mary C. Boorman

The Ladies' Guild also knitted and sewed many hundreds of garments which were sent to London for children from the bombed areas, to Danish refugees, to Norway, Finland, Russia, Poland, Holland and later on to Greece. Money was also raised for many charities such as the Red Cross and King George's fund for Seamen.

Over the years the Ladies' Guild has taken part in many fund-raising activities for St Andrew's. The Guild manned the Church Bazaar tea-stall for many years. The Guild has provided Alter Linen and Cloths, an Alter Book to commemorate the Coronation, new vestments from the London School for church embroidery and a red carpet for the main aisle and pew cushions were donated by Margaret Lind. Money has been raised for various appeals as well as for the restoration of St Andrew's stained glass windows and the Marcusson organ. The Ladies' Guild has also donated a candle holder for the celebration of special occasions and a votive candlestand

Each summer the Guild celebrates with a special lunch outing.

Sources: Articles by Margaret Lind - one of the original members - and Gunvor Otter, former Secretary of the Guild.

Nancy Fjällbrant

At the last AGM it was announced that the Ladies Guild, due to dwindling numbers, could no longer continue in the way it had for so many years. I decided to try something new. A monthly meeting of The New International Ladies Guild, meeting once a month in the café of the Smyrna Church. It's early days yet so I can't say if it is going to be successful or not, but will give it a try.

The final gift from the old Ladies Guild will be a green chasuble to be donated this February 2017. I hope when the congregation see our priest wearing it they will remember some of the older members of our church who have worked and prayed gladly side by side to make St Andrews a happy, welcoming and loving church. It is their donations that have made it possible for us to have given these gifts.

Friday Lunchtime Concerts

It has been a very good start of the year with 5 lunchtime concerts and varying instruments. Riccardo Gnudi has continued to give us the pleasure of more organ concerts from the classical period on the Marcussen organ. Next Gabrielle Kaufman gave a beautiful performance on the solo cello. The wonderful duo of Pianobasso, piano and double base, made a return visit and inspired us with classical composers played in a very sensitive, meditative way.

The following day we had, as an experiment, a Saturday Shoppers Lunchtime Concert with vocal and a lute, a new instrument for us. This resulted in our largest audience so far. We should consider repeating this on other occasions. Lastly on Friday

Anna Thunström sopran och Wezi Elliot lute
the 24. February, it was good to welcome back Samuel Runsteen with the viola da gamba after a long absence.
